To Whom It May Concern,

Keiser University is important to our community because students seeking higher education should have excellent choices in an array of courses and many locations at which to take those courses. Keiser University offers both.

My business, which will turn seven years old in June, has enjoyed tremendous growth due, in part, to the assistance of your graduates. Over the years, three were hired as volunteer interns and became paid contract workers very quickly. It was a pleasure to work with them. They were dependable, talented and conscientious about their work. Without exception, they were professional, organized and very productive. One has just celebrated her first anniversary with us. Another was with us for 3 years. And another for 2 years. They all proved to be valued additions to our team.

We have a single location (West Palm Beach) but work globally and have over 700 clients in 24 countries. Our focus is to coach individuals and company teams on best practices for using LinkedIn as a valued tool for branding and marketing. Our contract workers from Keiser University provided invaluable aid toward the administrative end of our business.

I have enjoyed several opportunities to coach Keiser University students at the West Palm Beach campus on proper setup of LinkedIn profiles with a focus on job searching. We have also participated in the job fairs onsite and I have personally attended SCORE Palm Beach workshops at the college. Keiser University has also provided me with the use of their computer lab to host evening LinkedIn Workshops over the past several years.

I am grateful for the relationship between Keiser University and DW Consulting Solutions and I believe in offering value to the community. It is my humble opinion that both entities have succeeded very well in accomplishing that synergy. I look forward to continuing our vital affiliation for many years.

Best regards,
