To Whom It May Concern:

"I love working with the students and staff at Keiser University! I am both an Advisory Board Member and a Community Partner and we have enjoyed providing complimentary financial literacy to Keiser students helping them with important money skills such as managing their money and all about credit. We have also participated in career expos and we love working with such a quality group of students and staff! When I think of Keiser University, I think of both students and staff that want to make a difference in our community and contribute both personally and professionally."

Sincerely,

Lisa Park
